DREAMING WITH THE BIBLE

Have you ever thought of the Bible as dream? This is not to say the Bible is a dream, even though many major decisions were decided by dreams in the Bible. The Bible can be seen as dream because it is the history of a peoples' relationship with their God, Yahweh, and their hopes and dreams for that relationship. It is much like getting married or starting a career; we have dreams for what is to come as the future unveils itself for our new relationship or line of work. This means we can look at the Bible through the lens of dreamwork which gives us additional ways to understand the Bible.

In this course we will explore: What is the Bible? ❖ The variety of writings found in the Bible ❖ The variety of ways to interpret the Bible ❖ Seeing the Bible from a psychological perspective ❖ The methods of dreamwork ❖ How to interpret dreams ❖ How to apply dream interpretation methods in understanding the major ideas in the Bible.

By the end of the course, participants will have a good understanding of the entire Biblical story and its major themes, as well as tools to help them interpret the Bible and their dreams. Because of the scope of this class, "Dreaming with the Bible" will be the focus for both the Fall and Winter sessions.

THE TIME IS NOW: A Call to Uncommon Courage

by Sister Joan Chittister

Sister Joan draws on the wisdom of prophets, both ancient and modern, to help us confront the societal forces that oppress and silence the sacred voices among us. For the weary, the cranky, and the fearful, her energizing message invites us to participate in a vision for a world greater than the one we find ourselves in today.

- September 11 - Introduction: A Word About Prophets / Risk / Paradox
- September 18 - Awareness / Insight / Audacity / Authenticity
- September 25 - Support and Wholeness / Self-Giving / Patience / Failure
- October 2 - Voice / Wisdom / Proclamation / Vision
- October 9 - Faith / Confidence / Tradition / Prophets Then, Prophets Now
